

This Fall at the Missouri History Museum

Open through February 15, 2015

50 PEOPLE, 50 PLACES, 50 IMAGES, 50 MOMENTS, 50 OBJECTS

Celebrate the 250th anniversary of the founding of St. Louis by exploring 250 years of regional history through 50 people, 50 places, 50 images, 50 moments, and 50 objects.

Organized by the Missouri History Museum

Missouri History Museum images

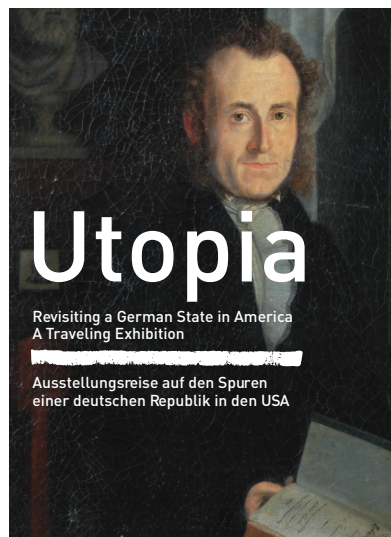

Presented by

Additional support provided by

November 22, 2014, through April 19, 2015

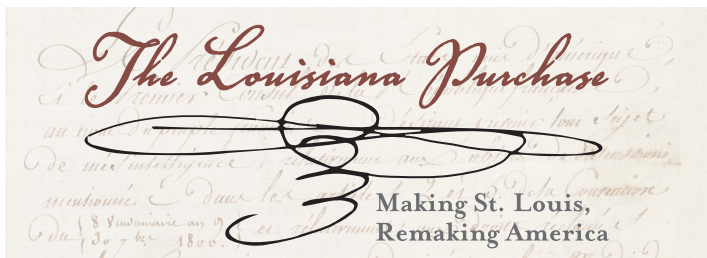

Seeking freedom and democracy, 500 members of the Giessen Emigration Society left their German homeland in 1834, crossed the Atlantic Ocean, and founded a model democratic German State in the Missouri River valley.

Organized by Municipality of Giessen in co-operation with Traveling Summer Republic

Co-organized by Cultural Church St. Stephen, Bremen; German-American Heritage Foundation, Washington, D.C.; and the Missouri History Museum

Missouri History Museum image

October 25, 2014, through April 19, 2015

PRESENTED BY Edward Jones
MAKING SENSE OF INVESTING

William T. Kemper Foundation —
Commerce Bank, Trustee

Additional support provided by

It has been called the greatest real estate deal in history. Explore the Louisiana Purchase, the complex political negotiations, and its effects that shaped St. Louis and America.

Organized by the Missouri History Museum in partnership with the National Archives, Washington, D.C.

Background image courtesy of the National Archives, Washington, D.C.

November 22, 2014, through April 19, 2015

The MISSOURI Immigrant Experience

Historic and contemporary photographs show how nations of origin and assimilation experiences may differ, but St. Louis immigrants share a powerful commonality: the city became home.

Organized by the Missouri History Museum and Missouri Immigrant and Refugee Advocates (MIRA)

Image courtesy of Missouri Valley Special Collections, Kansas City Public Library, Kansas City, Missouri

Lindell & DeBaliviere | Forest Park

Missouri
History
Museum

314.746.4599 | mohistory.org